PERU Process automation services through AuraPortal BPMS

Date: 2009-10-09

BDO Consulting entered into an agreement with AuraPortal, a spanish firm which created and owns a innovative application for business process automation.

BDO Consulting can thus offer clients on of the latest BMPS technology tools which helps them reduce costs and timings, as well as enhancing efficiency. It also facilitates control and coordination among staff, clients and suppliers, and is especially valuable for organizations managing large transaction volumes.

BPMS (Business Process Management Software) allow to model, execute and monitor processes involving employees and third parties (clients, suppliers). BPMS applications complement company's ERPs. They add flexibility to business processes and allow organizations to implement quick changes changes at low costs and without impairing stability .

Gartner Group ranked AuraPortal BPMS as one of the 22 best BPMS worldwide, and as an example of a "next generation" BPMS AuraPortal is a spanish organization created in 2001 featuring today a network of more than 80 partners in Europe and Latin America. Its portfolio includes implementations in more than 39 countries for 300 clients, among which Coca-Cola, Toyota, Yamaha, Petróleos Mexicanos (PEMEX), and government organizations
